

Terms of Use

We are providing this site on an "as-is" basis and make no representations or warranties about the accuracy, completeness or suitability for any purpose of the information and documents published in this site. All material included in this site is intended for information purposes only and does not represent legal advice. Users are recommended not to act or refrain from acting on the information in this site without first obtaining legal advice.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, we will not be liable for loss or damage arising out of or in connection with the use of this site or any documents contained therein (whether such losses were foreseen, foreseeable, known or otherwise). This limitation of liability applies to all liability of any kind including (without limitation) compensatory, direct, indirect or consequential damages, loss of data, income or profit, loss of or damage to property and claims of third parties.

None of the above exclusions and limitations in the clause is intended to limit any rights you may have as a consumer under local law or other statutory rights which may not be excluded nor in any way to exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury resulting from our negligence.

Users acknowledge that material downloaded or accessed via this site is obtained entirely at the user's own risk and the user will be entirely responsible for any resulting damage to software or computer systems and/or any resulting loss of data.

All intellectual property rights including (without limitation) copyright in the text, graphics, documents and information contained in this site belong to Mercers.

If any term of these Terms of Use shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining terms or provisions shall remain in full force and effect and such invalid, illegal or unenforceable terms and provisions shall be deemed not to have been part of these Terms.

The partners of Mercers are solicitors of England and Wales. Mercers are authorized and regulated under the name 'Mercers' by the Solicitors Regulation Authority and the registration number is 00053077. Details regarding the Solicitors Regulation Authority can be obtained from their website www.sra.org.uk. If there are any concerns regarding the firm's service or fees, the Firm's complaints procedure will be followed and a copy of this can be supplied, on request. If matters cannot be resolved via this procedure, it may be possible to refer matters to the Legal Ombudsman whose website is at www.legalombudsman.org.uk.

We reserve the right to change these terms at any time by posting changes online.

These terms shall be governed by, and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of, the laws of England and Wales.
